1-21-2024

Forman High School Alumni:

When our chairman, Kirk Hanson, died 1-26-2022, we could find no one able to step up and chair another reunion as Kirk was planning to do...a final one. Some of us involved with the last reunion contacted various members, but could get no commitments due to various things happening in their lives. Our last graduating class are also in their 80's, and many live away from Forman causing travel problems. We who were involved with the last two reunions were very aware of the months of planning, and physical work involved.

On September 27, 2023, after contacting legal advice on what was required, we called a meeting at Hole-in-One with Fred (Fritz) Fiala, Vice- Chairman, conducting the meeting. Beverly Bommersbach Walstead had earlier resigned as secretary so Bonita Meester Baltes took minutes. Others attending were Cyril Kudelka, Margie Westra Roney, Jim Westra, and Elaine Nelson Anderson....Classes of 1948, 1956, 1958, 1959, and non-grads. After much discussion, a unanimous vote was regrettably cast to disband the Forman Alumni Association due to above reasons, and to disperse the funds totaling $2510.22.

Motion to award two $500 scholarships to Sargent Central students graduating in 2024. Elaine was asked to meet with school staff to discuss the application process, and present the $1000 check to the school.

A motion to give the remaining $1510.22 to the Sargent County Museum as they had opened their doors to our reunions over the years for tours, coffee, and place to reminisce, and they were in need of funds due to the snowstorm damage to Building #3. Cyril was to present this donation to the Museum staff.

Cyril said, "All good things come to an end." and made the motion to adjourn.

The group continued to talk for hours of the various reunions, and the fun times of seeing former classmates, and hoped that any alumni coming to Forman in future years would reach out to us who continue to live at FORMAN...a Forever Hometown! We would enjoy getting together at your convenience while you are here. Thanks to all who participated in the years of reunions.

Sincerely,

Elaine Nelson Anderson
