Happy 125th Anniversary Stock Growers Bank!

To all our customers who have made this possible, we just want to say Thank You!
Thank You! Thank You!

You, our friends, family, and business associates have made this all possible with your loyal patronage.

We appreciate your business and look forward to the next 125 years of serving you.

Interesting facts:

The average business survives 2 years.

The average bank is only 38 years old.

Stock Growers Bank is 125 years old.

The United States of America is 249 years old.

In the fall of 1936, the Bank of Sargent County was closed by examiners and an offer was made to the Directors of the Havana State Bank to move their charter to Forman which was the County Seat.

After a series of meetings, the Directors voted to move the charter. The bank would be called Sargent County Bank, and it officially opened on January 15th, 1937. The Roosevelt Administration declared a "Bank Holiday nationwide in the early 1930s and closed all the Banks in the country for a short period of time to prevent a huge run on all of the banks. Havana State was the only bank in Sargent County that didn't fail.

The Havana Bank was robbed twice in 1933 on April 17th and again on June 20th.

Two of the three robbers were in both hold ups as they later were caught due to other robberies they had committed in South Dakota. G. A. Klefstad and Helen Kriesel were the two employees locked in the vault at the first hold up. A screwdriver and pliers in the vault were used to take the lock apart and they escaped. Around $7,800 in cash and bonds were taken the first time.

In the second hold up around $800 was taken and after having read accounts of the employee's previous escape, the leader of the robberies removed any tools from the vault preventing any escape the second time, thus giving himself away as having been involved before. Miss Kriesel was taken hostage from the bank and held on the running board of the V8 Ford until they were of town where she was released. The robbers pistol whipped Mr. Klefstad and left him in the vault. The robbers were later captured and both Kriesel and Klefstad went to St. Cloud, Mn to identify the three men. An interesting conversation was had between G. A. Klefstad and the leader who apologized for hitting Gilman during the second robbery. Those were hard times in America, but even the robbers had a conscious.

Come Celebrate with us!
